

Anthro Club

Spring 2009

April is Cultural month! We're finishing out the semester by welcoming our brand-new Dr. Faidra Papavasiliou.

April Events

RFS Gift Campaign

Refugee Family Services is running a Women's Journey Gift Campaign. The gift catalog creates a tangible way to donate to programs which help women achieve literacy, get training, and secure a job. GSU's Anthro Club has a team led by Dani Bond, and our goal is to raise $500 total. Please help us achieve this goal! Look out for team members with catalogs over the next few weeks; additionally, we will have tables in the Library Plaza during the last week of April. More information will be sent out soon. In the meantime, e-mail Dani with any questions: dbond3@student.gsu.edu.

Middle School Classroom Visit

On Friday, April 17, a few Anthro Club members will be visiting Dekalb PATH Academy to talk to middle school students about Anthropology. We hope to incorporate this type of outreach more regularly in the future, so look out for opportunities next semester if you are interested! Of course, if you would like to join us now, e-mail Ivey at itapp1@student.gsu.edu.

SPARK Informational Session

Saturday, April 25, 1:00 pm

SPARK is a grassroots advocacy organization dedicated to preserving reproductive justice in the South. If you're interested in getting involved or knowing more, join them for an informational session with free desserts and coffee:

Studioplex Community Room
659 Auburn Avenue
404-532-0022

Other Happenings

Earth Day!

Wednesday, April 22

Isn't every day really Earth Day? But if you'd like to celebrate in style, there are lots of great things going on around town, like a BeltLine Bike Tour (www.atlantabike.org). Creative Loafing has a great list of other fun opportunities:

Archaeology Day at Fernbank

Saturday, May 2, 10:00-5:00

Celebrate Georgia Archaeology Awareness Month at Fernbank with a "family fun" day of activities and demonstrations, most taking place from 10:00-2:00. See their website for more details!

Ongoing - Spanish English Coffee Hour

If you're interested in practicing Spanish with a native speaker, and helping a non-native English speaker improve upon their new language, join the Latin American Association on Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 5:30-6:30 pm for conversation exchange and free Starbucks pastries.

2750 Buford Hwy NE

Non-profit Lecture Series

The Women's Economic Development Agency is hosting a series of lectures in gaining funding for non-profit organizations. The next session, Saturday, May 9 from 10:00-12:30, will cover Grant Writing Research. $20 in advance, $25 at the door. Get more details and register at www.weda-atlanta.org.

FIELD DAY! And EOS Party!

Saturday, May 2.

1:00-4:00; 7:00-10:00

Exact location TBA.

Events will take place from 1:00-4:00, followed by a pot-luck party at 7:00. We'll be sure to give you the location once the date approaches! If you have a house to offer, contact Ivey at itapp1@student.gsu.edu.

Team sign-up sheets will be on the white board in the Anth Kitchen. Please wear something visible with your team's color:

Archaeology - Brown
Cultural - Green
Biological - Blue
Linguistics - Yellow

Please try to keep the teams even. Don't hate us if we have to reorganize you a bit for the sake of equality!

For those of you who do not live in-town, a sign-up sheet will be on the white board next to the team sign-ups for "host families," so that you can have a place to shower, change, and prepare (if necessary) your pot-luck offering. Locals, you can also sign up to offer your place to a commuter!

Thanks for a great semester, everyone!
Best of luck during finals,
and congratulations to our Spring 09 graduates!

If you have any questions, comments, or vulgar jokes, please contact your President!
