

Anthro Club

Spring 2009

February is Biological Anthropology month! Special thanks to Dr. Turner for joining us to share her findings from Peru. Here are some updates:

February Events

Saturday, February 21, 9:00 am

Volunteering at Flat Rock Cemetery, aiding in preservation and education on its archaeological and historical significance. For carpools or interest, e-mail Dr. Glover at jglover@gsu.edu or David at dcook13@student.gsu.edu.

Events through other campus groups:

Tonight! February 12, 7:00 pm

The Alliance for Gender and Sexual Diversity is hosting The Exhibition, an evening of drag performances, in the Speaker's Auditorium of the Student Center. Free!

Sunday, February 22, 4:00-8:00 pm

GSU's Italian Club is hosting a Venetian Carnevale at Pizza Pazza in Alpharetta. Look out for a Facebook invitation for more info, or contact Ivey at itapp1@student.gsu.edu.

March Events

Happy Hour:

Thursday, March 12th at 7:30 at Twain's in Decatur. Note that this is the 2nd week in March due to Spring Break.

Meeting:

Thursday, March 12th at 12:30 in the Anthro Kitchen (Sparks 345). Dr. Stephanie Lindemann, a sociolinguist from Applied Linguistics at GSU, will join us to share her research on native-non-native interactions.

Event:

Sunday, March 15th, 2:00-5:00
Refugee Family Services will be hosting Taste the World, a food and "culture" festival benefitting refugees in Atlanta. Anthro Club will be volunteering, which gives us free entry plus discounted tastings (some of which will be on Anthro Club!). There are two shifts (11:00-2:00 and 1:30-5:00). A sign-up sheet will be on the kitchen white board until February 26th.

Alternatively, you can attend the event as a guest ($35, includes 8 tastings, additional are $2 each), and Anthro Club will reimburse you for a portion of the cost ($10-$15). Purchase your ticket at refugeefamilyservices.org, save your receipt and ticket, and e-mail Robbie at rfinch4@student.gsu.edu. For all other questions, e-mail Ivey at itapp1@student.gsu.edu.

Special Guest Speaker

Thursday, March 19th at 12:30 in the Anthro Kitchen. A Peace Corps representative will discuss opportunities with the program, followed by Q&A. You never know—this could lead to a life-changing experience!

Spring Break

If you're staying in town for Spring Break, Anthro Club has put together some outings. These are not official events - just something fun and meaningful to do with friends on the cheap! A Facebook invitation is coming your way with more details.

Camping - Friday, February 27th-Sunday, March 1st.

Volunteer - Tuesday, March 3rd and/or Wednesday March 4th. Meal preparation and/or delivery to Atlantans with terminal illnesses with Open Hand Meal Delivery.

Karaoke or Trivia - Wednesday, March 4th. Karaoke in Doraville or Trivia at The Local on Ponce.

Improv Show - Friday, March 5th, 8:30 pm. Village Theatre's Friday Night Improv Comedy in Cabbagetown, $10.

Free Saturdays at the High - Saturday, March 8th (Terra Cotta Army thru 4/19!)

Field Day!

May 2

To celebrate the end of the semester, Anthro Club is hosting a FIELD DAY! It'll be as fun and crazy as the good ole' elementary school days, only anthropologized. Plans are to have the four subfields as teams (sign-up to come in April), and for one event to include a drag competition of our very own (queens and kings!). We want your input! A Facebook invitation will be sent out, where you can post which games you want to see, as well as any other ideas that pop up. We expect to host it in a park in the downtown area (Grant and Cabbagetown Parks are in the mix). A traditional end-of-semester house party will follow. If you don't have Facebook, e-mail David for suggestions or info at dcook13@student.gsu.edu!

T-Shirts

T-shirt orders will be taken until February 26th, and are $11, payable by cash or check (made out to Sarah Brown). Contact Sarah at sbrown77@student.gsu.edu for questions!

*If you have any questions, comments, or vulgar jokes, please contact your President!
