

Fall 2009

Anthro Club

September | Archaeology

- ▶ Special thanks to Dr. Despina Margomenou for speaking today about her fieldwork in Greece!

- ▶ The first Happy Hour was a great success. Thanks to everyone, old and new, for coming out. We hope to see more at September's Happy Hour – Thursday, September 17, 8:00 pm! We are still finalizing the exact location.
- ▶ Continuing with the theme of archaeology. Dr. Margomenou has organized a behind-the-scenes tour at Fernbank with Dennis Blanton, curator of Native American Archaeology for our outing this month. Findings from GSU's Maymester field school might show up! Mark your calendars for the afternoon of Friday, September 25. More details on exact time and carpooling options to come.
- ▶ A new year calls for a new Anthro Club T-shirt. Liz Napier is collecting ideas at enapier2@student.gsu.edu. (Physical copies may be turned in to Ivey's box – "Tapp" – in the grad lounge). No limits on creativity!!

Other Events

Atlanta's Slow Food Potluck Picnic in Piedmont Park "Eat In"

Monday, September 7
12:00 - 3:00

Let's get REAL FOOD in schools.
Let's join over 200 picnics nationwide to support vegetables for kids.
Let's enjoy our city, a great meal, our favorite park, and a great group of folks.
Let's get more money for school lunch programs.
Let's support local farms.
Let's eat!

There are great prizes for the most creative poster answering the question: Why do you care?

We will meet for a poster making session on Sunday, September 6 at Ivey's apartment, 4:00. A Facebook invitation will be created where we can brainstorm ideas. Bring any supplies you have!

The day of the picnic, we can meet at the Inman Park MARTA station to carpool, or call us once you're there to meet up – 678-314-3235.
