

The Mediterranean Milieu: Islam and Christianity in the Medieval World

*A faculty development seminar with Dr. Allen Fromherz,
Assistant Professor of History, Georgia State University*

Friday, November 6
10:30 AM – 2:30 PM
Room 2131
34 Peachtree Street
Georgia State University

This seminar will introduce participants to new research on the interconnections between Christendom and the Islamic World during the medieval period. Dr. Fromherz will explore how the confluence of commerce, culture, and creed throughout the Mediterranean created a common culture across and between religions and regions. These exchanges were, in part, responsible for producing the conditions that spawned the Renaissance.

OPEN TO ALL FACULTY. For more information or to register, please visit our web site at <http://www.cas.gsu.edu/dept/mec/outreach/resources.htm>. You can also contact Alta Schwartz at aschwartz@gsu.edu.

This seminar is sponsored by the Middle East Institute at Georgia State University and the Title VI program of the Federal Department of Education.
