

MAJOR MAP | B.A. in Anthropology

Anthropology
Pre-Education

COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCES
Major Matters Program

Use Major Pathways to plan your best route to graduation. www.cas.gsu.edu/major_pathways.html

Freshman

Sophomore

Junior

Senior

TAKE THE RIGHT CLASSES

Areas A-E

Review core and other requirements in undergraduate catalog. www.gsu.edu/es/catalogs_courses.html

Area F

Use Major Pathways to plan your best route to graduation. www.cas.gsu.edu/major_pathways.html

Area G

Take either Anthropological Theory (Anth 4020) or Archeological Theory (Anth 4600) to satisfy the methods requirement.

Take Senior Seminar (Anth 4970). Be aware that this class fills up quickly.

Remember, you must have at least 39 hours at the 3000/4000 level to graduate.

GRADUATION & BEYOND

EDUCATION:
Teaching, Research, Excavation

MUSEUMS & ZOOS:
Curatorial, Conservation, Research, Education, Primatology

LAW:
Forensics, CDC, FBI, GBI

GOVERNMENT:
Administration, Archeology, Surveying, Site Management, Excavation, Research, Museum Conservation, Legislative Compliance Review, Program Management, Urban Planning

PRIVATE SECTOR:
Archeology/Cultural Resource Management, Research, NGOs

BUSINESS:
Administration/Management, Advertising, Human Resources, Public Relations, Sales/Marketing, Writing/Editing

SOCIAL SERVICES:
Administration, Counseling, Research, Immigrant Services

GET GOOD ADVICE

Visit the university's Student Advisement Center. www.gsu.edu/es/student_advisement_center.html

Meet with the advisor for your major in the A&S Office of Academic Assistance. www.cas.gsu.edu/oa.html

Meet with the department advisor for your concentration. www.cas.gsu.edu/ugrad_advisors.html

Check in with both OAA and departmental advisors to confirm you are on course to graduate.

APPLY WHAT YOU LEARN

Work throughout your college career with a faculty member on research projects and other major activities as a University Scholar Assistant. www.gsu.edu/es/university_scholar_assistantship.html

Begin attending anthropology colloquia.

Enroll in Anth 4830 – Internship. This will satisfy Area G requirements and also provide future job opportunities and references.

Use connections made through internships to provide leads for after-graduation employment.

Join a voluntary organization, e.g. Peace Corps, Science Education Reform or an immigrant services charity.

CONNECT WITH PEERS

Enroll in a Freshmen Learning Community.

Join the A&S Honors Program. www.cas.gsu.edu/honors.aspx

Join a study group or tutorial session.

Join the Anthropology Club. Receive the newsletter and information on events, meetings, lectures, films and field trips.

THINK GLOBALLY

Take a Study Abroad course during Maymester or summer term. www.2.gsu.edu/~wwwoia/StudyAbroad

Spend a semester or a year abroad in an extended student exchange program. www.cas.gsu.edu/international.aspx

Join the annual month-long Field School in Rio de Janeiro. <http://monarch.gsu.edu/anthropology/People/images/fieldschool.swf>

Improve your language skills in preparation for working abroad or with immigrant communities.

PREPARE FOR LIFE AFTER GRADUATION

Attend College of Arts and Sciences lectures and other events. www.cas.gsu.edu

Visit University Career Services. www.gsu.edu/career

Discuss careers and graduate or law school with department advisors.

Review school offerings using Princeton Review or other online resource.

Take GRE/LSAT and apply for graduate or law school.

Prepare to take the Public Health Certificate Exam.

FALL 2007

Department of Anthropology | Location: 335 Sparks Hall | Phone: (404) 413-5156 | monarch.gsu.edu/anthropology